Convocation Ceremony at SGVU

The Convocation Ceremony held at Suresh Gyan Vihar University on 22nd November 2025 was a proud and memorable occasion, celebrating the academic achievements and dedication of graduating students across various disciplines. The event brought together graduates, faculty members, parents, and distinguished guests, creating an atmosphere filled with excitement, gratitude, and inspiration.

The ceremony began with a warm welcome, followed by the academic procession that symbolized the rich traditions of the university. Hon'ble dignitaries addressed the gathering, emphasizing the importance of knowledge, resilience, and ethical leadership in shaping a successful future. They encouraged graduates to carry forward the values of SGVU—excellence, innovation, and integrity—as they step into their professional journeys.

Degrees were formally conferred upon students of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs, marking the culmination of years of dedication and hard work. Outstanding performers were recognized with awards and medals, celebrating not just academic achievements but also contributions to research, community engagement, and holistic development.

The event also served as a moment of reflection, where students expressed gratitude to their teachers, families, and the university community for their continuous support. As graduates prepare to enter diverse professional fields, the convocation reminded them of their responsibility to contribute positively to society and uphold the spirit of lifelong learning.

The 2025 Convocation concluded with heartfelt wishes for the graduates' bright futures, reaffirming SGVU's commitment to nurturing capable, confident, and compassionate leaders for tomorrow.

Orientation Program of CDOE, SGVU

The Centre for Distance & Online Education (CDOE), SGVU successfully conducted its online Orientation Program, welcoming students to a new academic journey filled with learning and growth. The session began with an inspiring address by Director, Dr. T. K. Jain, who highlighted the vision of CDOE and encouraged students to stay focused, disciplined, and proactive throughout their program. He emphasized the importance of using digital platforms effectively for seamless learning.

Joint Director, Dr. Ankur Dutt Sharma, further guided students on academic expectations and the support system provided by CDOE. He explained how students can benefit from Saturday online sessions, interactive classes, and continuous mentoring from faculty members.

A detailed discussion was held on the Learning Management System (LMS), where students were briefed on accessing study materials, recorded lectures, assignments, and announcements. The team also explained the structured process for project guidance, helping students understand how to choose topics, interact with faculty mentors, and complete their project work successfully.

Message from the Director's Desk

Dear Students and Readers,

It is my pleasure to present this edition of our newsletter, which reflects the enthusiasm, dedication, and progress of our CDOE community. At SGVU, we are committed to offering high-quality, flexible, and student-centered learning experiences. With strengthened digital platforms, interactive Saturday sessions, timely project guidance, and continuous faculty support, we aim to empower every learner to excel in their academic journey.

I encourage all students to stay engaged, use the LMS actively, participate in academic activities, and maintain consistency in their studies. Together, let us foster a culture of curiosity, growth, and lifelong learning.

Wishing you all success and meaningful progress.

– Prof. (Dr.) T. K. Jain

SGVU Carnival: A Celebration of Colours, Culture and Creativity

The SGVU Carnival was a vibrant and joyful celebration that brought together students, faculty, and staff for a day filled with energy, creativity, and togetherness. Designed to provide a refreshing break from academic routines, the carnival showcased the lively spirit and talent of the SGVU community.

The event featured colourful stalls, fun games, music, food counters, and engaging activities that created a festive atmosphere across the campus. Students participated enthusiastically in dance, music, art, and fashion performances, turning the stage into a hub of entertainment and artistic expression. Various clubs and departments displayed their creativity through thematic stalls and interactive sessions.

Faculty members also joined the celebrations, adding warmth and encouragement to the event. The carnival promoted a sense of camaraderie, teamwork, and cultural exchange, reflecting the university's commitment to holistic development beyond classroom learning.

With cheerful participation, laughter, and memorable moments, the SGVU Carnival became a perfect blend of fun and fellowship. It strengthened bonds within the university community and highlighted the spirit of joy and inclusiveness that SGVU proudly upholds.

“Naqab” – A Theatrical Tribute at the Tagore Festival

As part of the Tagore Festival celebration at Suresh Gyan Vihar University, the Theatre Club presented an inspiring and thought-provoking performance titled “Naqab.” The event beautifully captured the spirit of creativity, reflection, and cultural enrichment that Rabindranath Tagore’s legacy represents.

“Naqab” explored themes of identity, truth, and the masks people wear in society—both literal and symbolic. Through expressive acting, powerful dialogues, and captivating stagecraft, the students skillfully portrayed the inner conflicts faced by individuals as they navigate societal expectations and personal desires. The play highlighted the timeless relevance of Tagore’s ideas on human emotions, freedom, and self-realization.

The audience, comprising students, faculty, and guests, was deeply engaged throughout the performance. The Theatre Club’s dedication was visible in every aspect—from direction and scripting to costumes and set design—showcasing the immense talent and passion of SGVU’s young artists.

The event not only honoured Tagore’s artistic vision but also encouraged students to express themselves through theatre and creative storytelling. “Naqab” stood out as a memorable highlight of the Tagore Festival, reinforcing SGVU’s commitment to promoting cultural activities and nurturing artistic expression within its vibrant campus community.
